

Ashdon Primary School Accessibility Statement 2025

This website is run by Ashdon Primary School and this statement applies to www.ashdon.essex.sch.uk (28.01.2025). We want as many people as possible to be able to use this website. For example, that means you should be able to:

- Change colours, contrast levels and fonts using browser or device settings
- Zoom in up to 400% without the text spilling off the screen
- Navigate most of the website using a keyboard or speech recognition software
- Listen to most of the website using a screen reader (including the most recent versions of JAWS, NVDA and VoiceOver)

We've also made the website text as simple as possible to understand.
AbilityNet has advice on making your device easier to use if you have a disability.

Accessibility Features

Responsive Design

Our website is designed to work on various devices and screen sizes, including desktop computers, tablets, and smartphones.

Keyboard Navigation

The website is navigable via keyboard to accommodate users who cannot use a mouse.

Text Readability

We use clear and legible fonts, sufficient colour contrast, and adjustable text size to enhance readability.

Alternative Text

Images and graphics include descriptive alternative text to assist users with visual impairments.

Parents Evening

Our parents' evening platform is fully keyboard-navigable, screen reader compatible, and designed to meet visual accessibility standards, ensuring compliance with colour contrast and text readability guidelines.

Clubs

Our club booking platform is fully keyboard-navigable, screen reader compatible, and designed to meet visual accessibility standards, ensuring compliance with colour contrast and text readability guidelines.

Non-compliance with the accessibility regulations

School exemption

This website is partially compliant with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines version 2.2 AA standard, due to the exemptions listed below.

Primary and secondary schools or nurseries are exempt except for the content people need to use their services, for example, a form that lets you outline school meal preferences.

Non-compliant content

We know some parts of this website are not fully accessible:

- Most older PDF documents are not fully accessible to screen reader software
- Embedded Google Maps are not accessible within the site
- Any forms with bespoke styling on the site may not be accessible

Known Issues and Solutions

Images: We endeavour to ensure that we include alternative text for any images. If any images do not have a text alternative, so people using a screen reader cannot access the information, we will rectify this if notified.

Video: We endeavour to ensure that we include frame titles, captioning and transcriptions for any videos. If any videos do not have a frame title, captions or transcriptions, we will rectify this if notified.

Links: We endeavour to ensure that links are descriptive and appropriately used. If any links are not descriptive, we will rectify this if notified.

Tables: We endeavour to ensure that tables have appropriate headings set. If any tables do not have defined headings, we will rectify this if notified.

Brand colours: We endeavour to ensure that our brand colours meet the contrast ratio for the corresponding text size. If any text does not meet the contrast ratio, we will rectify this if notified.

Ongoing Efforts

We are continually working to improve the accessibility of our website by:

- Enhancing screen reader compatibility
- Incorporating user feedback to improve accessibility
- Keeping up-to-date with evolving accessibility standards and best practices

Third-Party Content

While we aim to ensure all content on our website is accessible, some third-party materials or linked resources may not fully meet accessibility standards. We encourage you to contact us if you have difficulties accessing external content.

Enforcement procedure

The Equality and Human Rights Commission (EHRC) is responsible for enforcing the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018 (the 'accessibility regulations'). If you're not happy with how we respond to your complaint, contact the Equality Advisory and Support Service (EASS).

Technical information about this website's accessibility

Ashdon Primary School is committed to making its website accessible, in accordance with the Public Sector Bodies (Websites and Mobile Applications) (No. 2) Accessibility Regulations 2018.

Compliance status

The website is partially exempt with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.2 AA standard due to the exemptions and non-compliances listed above.
